Karamoja Resilience Support Unit

Pathways to Resilience in the Karamoja Cluster: A regional conference on recent research, and policy options, 21-23 May 2019, Moroto, Uganda

FORMAT FOR ABSTRACTS

General:
- use Times New Roman font 11pt throughout
- use single spacing throughout

Title:
- use bold font

Authors:
- provide full names for each author
- provide institutional affiliation for each author
- provide email address for lead author
- specify which author would present the paper

Abstract
- Describe the aims of the paper, provide a brief note on methodology, and outline the main findings and recommendations
- Word limit is 250 words, not including title, authors and other details

Submitting the abstract
- Submission deadline for abstracts is 20th December 2018
- Send your abstract to Mesfin Ayele, Chief of Party, KRSU, Kampala by email: mesfin.molla@tufts.edu

Example of Abstract

Understanding changes in traditional leadership in Karamoja, Uganda: Implications for conflict management
Kevin Masembe\textsuperscript{a}, Elizabeth Jones\textsuperscript{b} and Ivor Akabwai\textsuperscript{a}
\textsuperscript{a} Institute for Social Studies, Lodwar University, Kenya
\textsuperscript{b} University of Birmingham, UK
Presenter: Kevin Masembe, email: kmasembe@iss.lood.edu

This paper describes a study on the changing nature of traditional leadership in Karamoja …<continue to 250 words maximum>